

SCHOOL LIBRARY MEDIA SPECIALIST STANDARD CERTIFICATE (ENDORSEMENT CODE: 2855)

Please print this page before you apply.

The school library media specialist (SLMS) endorsement is required for any person who serves as a school library media specialist in all public schools. The functions include delivery of instruction in information literacy skills and the development and coordination of school library media programs and resources. The functions also include the delivery of instruction in the evaluation, selection, organization, distribution, creation and utilization of school library media. Media are defined as all print, non-print and electronic resources including the technologies needed for their use.

The following individuals are eligible to receive the standard SLMS endorsement:

1. Those holding a permanent New Jersey school librarian or standard educational media specialist endorsement;
2. Those holding a standard New Jersey Associate School Library Media Specialist (ASLMS) endorsement who have completed a graduate degree program at a regionally accredited college or university with specialization in school library media studies.

Online Certificate Information

- All information about certificates is now available online, including certificate name, certificate ID number, date of issuance, and expiration date if applicable. Instructions to view this information can be found at www.state.nj.us/education/educators/license/tcis/instructions.pdf.
- In order to make certification information available more quickly, this information will appear on our website in lieu of the issuance of paper certificates. Additionally, the move to electronic certificates will save costs associated with printing and mailing, as many of our neighboring states have discovered. Therefore, as of May 15, 2015, paper certificates will no longer be issued.
